Bluegrass Day April 12th!

Come experience the vibrant waves of color that cover the hillsides at The Flower Fields at Carlsbad Ranch. This wonderful annual display of horticultural beauty opens in March promising to welcome you into a sea of floral color and aromatic delights. You will get to view the 50-plus acres of breathtaking Giant Tecolote Ranunculus, abundant roses in the All American Rose Garden, the world famous Ecke poinsettias and tour the entire ranch on an exciting tractor ride and on Bluegrass Day listen to bluegrass music that is fun for the whole family, young and old.

The Flower Fields is the only commercial ranunculus field in the world that is open to the public. The Flower Fields entertains and educates visitors of all ages from morning to dusk with flourishing gardens and community activities.

On April 12 only, there will be a multitude of bands playing Bluegrass music for your enjoyment throughout the day between 11AM and 4PM. This event is one of the more popular days to visit the Flower Fields in Carlsbad CA.

Wagon rides will be available courtesy of the Antique Gas and Steam Engine Museum for a small additional fee (see enclosed flyer for more information).
